HAYDEN

The Hayden tennis association held a well attended meeting on the evening of the Fourth at the Ray Consolidated dormitory to discuss a number of important matters. Notable among these was the election of officers and the discussion of some line of attack to be employed in going after the president's cup which is now held by the Ray association. This is a magnificent trophy which is the gift of President Aldrich of the Ray Consolidated and will become the permanent property of the association winning it three times consecutively. The Ray boys took it in the first contest last spring and only defended it last fall when the contest was held on our home grounds. For this reason the outlook is dark for our local talent but they are determined to die game and are preparing for the coming contest hopefully. At last Tuesday's meeting Messrs. Maclean, Beattie, Allen, Studley and Hancock were selected as champions of Hayden cause and instructed to place themselves in the best of trim for the great event which is now arranged for the thirteenth of April and will be staged in Ray. A large gathering of local enthusiasts will accompany the contest.

Ingleside

Golf continues to be the leading diversion at the Ingleside Club, though lengthening spring days and balmy weather has given horseback riding an additional impetus.

The grading on the cross-cut canal east of Ingleside has been completed and material is being hauled and preliminary work is under way for constructing the gates that will divert the water from the Arizona canal to the Crosscut.

Mr. Jonathan W. Jackson arrived from Chicago on Thursday, joining his wife who is spending her winter at the club.

On Wednesday Mr. Frank W. Barker returned from a short business trip east.

Mr. Webster J. Lewis left for Chicago on Thursday. Mr. Lewis has been so pleased with Ingleside and its surroundings that he now plans to make his permanent winter home there.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Strevel of Salt Lake City, Utah, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Murphy at the club house Monday. On Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Murphy also entertained Mr. Henry Adams of Pasadena.

HE'S LONE SURVIVOR OF SHERIDAN'S RIDE

George W. Moore.

George W. Moore, of Scranton, Pa., has the distinction of being the only survivor of General Phil Sheridan's bodyguard on the famous ride from Winchester to Cedar Creek, October 19, 1864.

Of the fifty men who started with Sheridan on that memorable dash, Moore was the only one who was able to keep the pace until the journey's end. He is 76 years old, but is still young in spirit and enthusiasm.

NEW CORPORATION WILL HANDLE BUICKS

Roper and Bird Purchase Jack Rabbit Business and Will Push It

A new corporation formed last week and to be known as the Southwest Motor company, will hereafter pilot the affairs of the Buick-Appearance agency in the state of Arizona and conduct the large and growing garage business in connection. The company was formed by Roper and Bird, two young eastern business men, who recently became stockholders in the Arizona Land and Investment company. Roper purchased the Buick-Appearance business from the Ferguson-Mohn company and then turned it in to the corporation.

The new company will be managed by Mr. Roper. He has been a week putting affairs in shipshape. Jack Smith, formerly of the Ferguson-Mohn company, and the driver who put the Jackrabbit over the desert in the San Diego-Phoenix road race, will be retained as head salesman for the Southwestern Motor company.

A lot of money will be invested on more machinery for the repair department. The paint shop that was planned in connection has not been decided upon yet by the new owners. Manager Jones of the electrical department will have a part of the floor space and has already had his exchange apparatus going. Beside the regular repair work there is a wash room and plenty of room for storage.

MYSTERIOUS CASTRO

Rushes Aboard Boat About to Sail Then Hurries Ashore Again

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH] NEW YORK, March 8.—Cepha Castro, former president of Venezuela, mystified persons gathered at a Brooklyn steamship pier today to watch the departure of the Itasca for Porto Rico. Shortly before the vessel's sailing time, Castro hurried out on the pier in an automobile and walked aboard the Itasca. It was concluded that he had changed his plans, as announced, to go to Europe, and had taken passage for Porto Rico. Just before the gang planks were taken in, however, Castro rushed ashore, entered his car, and was driven away rapidly. His mission is a mystery.
